

ART: Eternal Spring

A collection of paintings by renowned artist Milind Nayak. Milind is known for his expressive artwork covering a cross-section of media including oil, watercolours, pastels and graphite. The current series uses oil and acrylic with wood as a substrate. His work has been described as “a succession of lyrical and evocative paintings with a natural flow of colours.” He has drawn praise from some of the most prominent figures in the world, including Booker Prize-winning Author Graham Swift.
