V.Hariraam is an accomplished abstractionist who pursues pure non representational forms in his paintings. His artistic trajectory determined his visual language of abstraction in a remarkable suite of works titled “Enigmatic Staging of Indistinct Forms”. Hariraam, who initiated his forays into the world of art through landscapes and human imagery, evolved his vocabulary and language progressively until he arrived at his abstraction in 1999. The intensity of purpose and dedicated mission of persistent artistic quest for a visual language of pure abstraction found success and fulfillment in this recent suite of works.

Mohan Singh one of the well-known artists for Semi-Abstract style in Mumbai. He says, "Painting is like meditation for me; my path to self-discovery. My day is never complete if I don't paint."

Singh brings the abstract world to life through his powerful brush stroke. He creates an atmosphere that oscillates amongst meditative and exuberant. The lines are almost invisible, relying only on the colours to separate the components of the image.

Sachin Deo's art journey is a voyage of self-discovery to give form to the formless and expression to the inexpressible. In the process he explores the causal relationship between the observer, observed and the act of observation itself as a thought wave in time. In the new series Sachin skilfully weaves a rich tapestry of symbolic forms out of rice paper, coloured thread, silver foil and even digital prints on different layers of thin cotton cloth to conjure up his sublime collages. They capture the essence of existential bliss of floating on the mind stream from being to becoming.
