

Under A Spell – An architecture-turned-artist, Parbboni has been painting since she was a child. She's a self-taught painter who has mastered the intricacies and complexities of different artistic styles with no formal training. Inspiration for her work comes from a variety of sources – nature, wildlife, human expressions and colours, among others.

Date: On till May 27

Time: 11 am

Venue: Sublime Galleria,
UB City

