Bangalore's Gallery in the sky

Sublime Galleria is a professionally managed, dynamic meeting ground for upcoming artist, art connoisseurs and collectors. Our artists represent a cross section of styles, medium, techniques and forms, which together define the artistic sensibilities that are evolving today. Sublime is on a mission to further the cause of the arts and also sees itself as a dynamic crucible for the next generation to develop and showcase their talent. Sublime reaches out to upcoming artists and offers them a great platform to showcase their talents and make their body of work accessible to Bangalore art community.

We also organize regular workshops for children in various creative and artistic field which include Visual Arts, Theatre, Music, Dance and more. Our recent initiative Sublime Art Ed empower schools and teachers to inspire creativity in children. Sublime Art Ed wants to see an India where every child's creativity is nurtured through the arts.

Sublime also conducts Art Bengaluru, the city's largest art festival featuring a diverse and international selection of art and artists. The latest edition featured over 20 artists and consulates from all over India. Please see the last page for more information.

About the Artist – Badrunissa Irfan

Badrunissa Irfan is an artist whose third exhibition at the galleria showcases paintings that reflect her deep faith and spiritual connection to the Almighty. Her works are characterized by their bright and vibrant colours, bold strokes, and a celebration of nature as a manifestation of the divine. She sees herself as a conduit for God's creation and aims to express this through her art. While her paintings may appear ordinary at first glance, they possess profound layers of meaning upon closer inspection. Badrunissa draws inspiration from the Quran, particularly emphasizing the idea that nature reflects the existence of God. Her art communicates directly to the soul, evoking a powerful and instinctive response in the viewer. She often paints in her garden, finding inspiration in the beauty of creation. Horses, as well as heroic themes of war and the ocean, frequently appear in her artwork. Badrunissa acknowledges her debt to her mother for her artistic talent and perfectionist attitude. Her attention to detail is remarkable, although she recognizes that nothing can compare to the true magnificence of God's work. Overall, Badrunissa art expresses humility and a profound understanding of the divine presence in all aspects of creation.

Sublime House Of Tea

Sublime House of Tea has turned tea-drinking into a coveted experience for its steadily growing clientele by presenting perennial favourites like Darjeeling tea, Assam tea and Earl Grey tea that cater to traditionalists, as well as delightful flavours like Jasmine Mandarin, Oolong White Grapes and Rooibos Vanilla Spice that have garnered the loyalty of experimentalists. The brand has established itself as one of the leading curators of distinctive tea variants and creative infusions in India, and has also found its way to cups and hearts beyond. Sublime House of Tea is a part of the Prestige Group, a name that is synonymous with luxury and has been instrumental in redefining the concept of lifestyle in India.

Why Sublime?

Spurred by her desire to showcase the finest in lifestyle, visionary Ms. Uzma Irfan, Executive Director at the Prestige Group, and Founder of Sublime, UB City, Bangalore, masterminded Sublime House of Tea in 2013. Uzma has a degree in Business Administration from the American Intercontinental University, London, and has been at the forefront of several Prestige Group enterprises that have earned global acclaim and respect. Her keenness in promoting traditionally sound yet innovative ideas is apparent from the Sublime House of Tea. "The idea was to bring different kinds of world tea to an Indian consumer's tea cup", says Uzma. "Most Indian kitchens are now open to experimenting beyond the traditional masala chai! Our teas are curated from the finest produce in the country & crafted into unique blends that are both flavourful & healthy."
