Bangalore's Gallery in the sky

Sublime Galleria is a professionally managed, dynamic meeting ground for upcoming artist, art connoisseurs and collectors. Our artists represent a cross section of styles, medium, techniques and forms, which together define the artistic sensibilities that are evolving today. Sublime is on a mission to further the cause of the arts and also sees itself as a dynamic crucible for the next generation to develop and showcase their talent. Sublime reaches out to upcoming artists and offers them a great platform to showcase their talents and make their body of work accessible to Bangalore art community.

We also organize regular workshops for children in various creative and artistic field which include Visual Arts, Theatre, Music, Dance and more. Our recent initiative Sublime Art Ed empower schools and teachers to inspire creativity in children. Sublime Art Ed wants to see an India where every child's creativity is nurtured through the arts.

Sublime also conducts Art Bengaluru, the city's largest art festival featuring a diverse and international selection of art and artists. The latest edition featured over 20 artists and consulates from all over India. Please see the last page for more information.

About the Artist – Badrunissa Irfan

The curation of paintings on display impresses one with its unvarnished honesty and direct appeal. Centred on the kaleidoscopic images of nature, Badrunissa Irfan's paintings are suffused with vitality and throb with life and energy. They tell of an imagination that transcends the realm of storytelling and occupies a niche of its own, which speaks without artifice directly to the soul.

These paintings choose to celebrate Nature and life as manifestations of the divine and glorify their immeasurable greatness. They exude a raw power that communicates to the viewer with a directness that stirs him to an instinctive and involuntary response, as all great art does.

Badrunissa says she usually sits in her garden and paints. Immersing herself thus in the beauty of creation inspires her brush with renewed vigour. She is also an animal lover with the horse being a particular favourite, which will explain the equine themes that run through many of her paintings. Her creative horizon is quite colossal by following the path of the Romanticists and exploring themes of glory, flora and fauna.

Another debt she acknowledges is to her mother, from whom she says she inherited her artistic talent and her perfectionist attitude. The latter is manifestly evident in the remarkably minute attention to detail that distinguishes her work, though she is the first to admit that nothing on her canvas can compare to the real glory of God's work.

Badrunissa's art is thus an expression of humility and a recognition of the immanence of the divine to which all creation is subservient and indebted. The bedrock as well as the energy that animates her paintings is her abiding faith in the Almighty. She regards herself as an amanuensis of God, merely an instrument, a brush if you will, which is controlled by His will. Allah is the creator, she says, and that she is merely giving expression to what he has created. This deep faith imbues her work with a profound spirituality.

Her choice of colours, for example, are bright and effervescent. Never muted or subdued. Her strokes are bold and sure. They speak of a positivity and a certainty of happiness, a confidence in one's Maker.

Proceeds from this show will be given to charity.

Sublime House Of Tea

Sublime House of Tea has turned tea-drinking into a coveted experience for its steadily growing clientele by presenting perennial favourites like Darjeeling tea, Assam tea and Earl Grey tea that cater to traditionalists, as well as delightful flavours like Jasmine Mandarin, Oolong White Grapes and Rooibos Vanilla Spice that have garnered the loyalty of experimentalists. The brand has established itself as one of the leading curators of distinctive tea variants and creative infusions in India, and has also found its way to cups and hearts beyond. Sublime House of Tea is a part of the Prestige Group, a name that is synonymous with luxury and has been instrumental in redefining the concept of lifestyle in India.

Why Sublime?

Spurred by her desire to showcase the finest in lifestyle, visionary Ms. Uzma Irfan, Executive Director at the Prestige Group, and Founder of Sublime, UB City, Bangalore, masterminded Sublime House of Tea in 2013. Uzma has a degree in Business Administration from the American Intercontinental University, London, and has been at the forefront of several Prestige Group enterprises that have earned global acclaim and respect. Her keenness in promoting traditionally sound yet innovative ideas is apparent from the Sublime House of Tea. "The idea was to bring different kinds of world tea to an Indian consumer's tea cup", says Uzma. "Most Indian kitchens are now open to experimenting beyond the traditional masala chai! Our teas are curated from the finest produce in the country & crafted into unique blends that are both flavourful & healthy."
