About the Artist – Bhaskar Gauribidanur

Bhaskar is a professional photographer based in the salubrious city of Bangalore.

For over four decades and more, he has left a lasting impression, far and wide, with his stunning images, both, in the world of advertising and the non-commercial genre.

While a large part of his career was spent in the extremely demanding world of the advertising industry, over the last decade and a half, he has made a foray into the non-commercial category of creative, abstract, black and white and colour photography. Using some very unconventional methods, known to few, he has been producing some outstanding images. Photographic images which have the feel of abstract, hand-made paintings. Absolutely unique and ethereal. In pursuit of achieving more, he also shoots in the divine medium of black and white; silhouettes being his specialty and forte. Though extremely adept at digital photography, he is one of the very few photographers who also shoots on the classical medium of film. His beautiful images, both in black and white, and colour, have been sold to various buyers, directly and through some well-known art galleries. His refined sense of lighting, framing, use of conditions and capturing the moment have drawn admiration and praise from professionals and non-professionals alike.

Apart from his passionate pursuit of photography, he is also an accomplished English theatre artist with several productions to his credit as an actor and director. He is Bangalore's only Mahindra Excellence In Theatre Awards (META) Winner. He also writes scripts and lends his sonorous voice for documentaries, wildlife documentaries, corporate films, bio pics etc.

About the Show – Illumination

Photography is my catharsis. My very own easel and brush to create stunning images that have the feel and the look of paintings. My journey into the world of black and white and abstract photography was not by accident. It was a concerted effort at leaving a lasting impression for posterity. To leave an indelible mark for the time when I'll be long gone and just a footnote in history.

More than three decades ago, I chanced upon the works of one of the greatest photographers of all time; the British photographer Wilfred Thesiger. An absolute minimalist, he worked with just one camera and one 50mm lens to produce some of the finest pictures ever. Having spent a considerable amount of time in the glamorous world of advertising photography, where excess is imperative and appreciated, my makeover and transition to a minimalist was quite a challenge. But the move was the best thing that happened to me. Today, all my photography is the result of just one lens and one camera and mostly with natural light. I work more from the heart than from my head. Images that make the viewer sigh with a sense of happiness. These pictures here are an endeavor of almost three decades. I must thank the sagacious patrons of Sublime Galleria for giving me this opportunity to exhibit my work at their wonderful gallery.

The brand has established itself as one of the leading curators of distinctive tea variants and creative infusions in India, and has also found its way to cups and hearts beyond. Sublime House of Tea is a part of the Prestige Group, a name that is synonymous with luxury and has been instrumental in redefining the concept of lifestyle in India.

Why Sublime?

Spurred by her desire to showcase the finest in lifestyle, visionary Ms. Uzma Irfan, Executive Director at the Prestige Group, and Founder of Sublime, UB City, Bangalore, masterminded Sublime House of Tea in 2013. Uzma has a degree in Business Administration from the American Intercontinental University, London, and has been at the forefront of several Prestige Group enterprises that have earned global acclaim and respect. Her keenness in promoting traditionally sound yet innovative ideas is apparent from the Sublime House of Tea. "The idea was to bring different kinds of world tea to an Indian consumer's tea cup", says Uzma. "Most Indian kitchens are now open to experimenting beyond the traditional masala chai! Our teas are curated from the finest produce in the country & crafted into unique blends that are both flavourful & healthy."
