About the Artist – Badrunissa Irfan

The curation of paintings on display impresses one with its unvarnished honesty and direct appeal. Centred on the kaleidoscopic images of nature, Badrunissa Irfan's paintings are suffused with vitality and throb with life and energy. They tell of an imagination that transcends the realm of storytelling and occupies a niche of its own, which speaks without artifice directly to the soul.

These paintings choose to celebrate Nature and life as manifestations of the divine and glorify their immeasurable greatness. They exude a raw power that communicates to the viewer with a directness that stirs him to an instinctive and involuntary response, as all great art does.

Badrunissa says she usually sits in her garden and paints. Immersing herself thus in the beauty of creation inspires her brush with renewed vigour. She is also an animal lover with the horse being a particular favourite, which will explain the equine themes that run through many of her paintings. Her creative horizon is quite colossal by following the path of the Romanticists and exploring themes of glory, flora and fauna.

Another debt she acknowledges is to her mother, from whom she says she inherited her artistic talent and her perfectionist attitude. The latter is manifestly evident in the remarkably minute attention to detail that distinguishes her work, though she is the first to admit that nothing on her canvas can compare to the real glory of God's work.

Badrunissa's art is thus an expression of humility and a recognition of the immanence of the divine to which all creation is subservient and indebted. The bedrock as well as the energy that animates her paintings is her abiding faith in the Almighty. She regards herself as an amanuensis of God, merely an instrument, a brush if you will, which is controlled by His will. Allah is the creator, she says, and that she is merely giving expression to what he has created. This deep faith imbues her work with a profound spirituality.

Her choice of colours, for example, are bright and effervescent. Never muted or subdued. Her strokes are bold and sure. They speak of a positivity and a certainty of happiness, a confidence in one's Maker.

Proceeds from this show will be given to charity.

Why Sublime?

Spurred by her desire to showcase the finest in lifestyle, visionary Ms. Uzma Irfan, Executive Director at the Prestige Group, and Founder of Sublime, UB City, Bangalore, masterminded Sublime House of Tea in 2013. Our teas are curated from the finest produce in the country & crafted into unique blends that are both flavourful & healthy."
