About the Artist – Sahona Sarkar

Hi, I'm Sahona Sarkar, West Bengal, India. Creating art through mixed media, painting and thread work is my true passion.

My creative practice is deeply rooted in the vibrant and intricate beauty of the natural world. I am endlessly inspired by flora and fauna—especially the delicate elegance of various flowers, diverse birds and the lively world of insects. From the gentle flutter of butterflies and the diligent rhythm of bees, to the detailed webs of spiders, the regal grace of peacocks and the swift darting of dragonflies, each element finds a meaningful place in my creations.

What defines my artistic expression is the seamless harmony between paint and thread. On carefully painted canvas backgrounds—often blooming with rich botanical floral and serene avian landscapes—I use hand-stitched embroidery to add tactile dimension, depth, and vivid texture. Through this unique fusion of canvas painting and fine embroidery, I bring life to every petal, feather, wing, and insect.

In a rapidly modernizing world where habitats are constantly shifting, my artwork serves as a reminder of the fragility and interconnectedness of our ecosystem. Flowers nurture pollinators like bees and butterflies, while birds and wildlife sustain the delicate balance of life. Each thread in my work symbolizes these vital connections, echoing the patience, precision, and harmony found in nature itself.

About the Show

Stories in Colours & Threads

An Exhibition by Sohana Sarkar

Stories in Colours & Threads is a heartfelt collection of artworks by Sohana Sarkar, a young and talented artist who, while still pursuing her graduation, has dedicated herself to the demanding and intricate world of art. Balancing academics with creativity, Sohana has invested countless hours in crafting works that celebrate patience, imagination, and the beauty of handmade expression.

Working with a unique combination of acrylic painting and thread embroidery, Sohana creates artworks that blur the boundaries between painting and textile art. Each piece is carefully developed through layers of colour, texture, and meticulously embroidered details, bringing stories, emotions, and personal reflections to life.

The process behind these works is as remarkable as the finished pieces themselves. Every artwork requires between one and two days of dedicated effort, depending on its complexity. The embroidery, in particular, demands precision, patience, and an unwavering commitment to detail, making each creation a testament to the artist's perseverance and craftsmanship.

Through this collection, Sohana invites viewers to explore a world where vibrant colours meet delicate threads, transforming simple surfaces into rich visual narratives. The exhibition reflects not only her artistic talent but also her determination to pursue her passion alongside her academic journey.

Stories in Colours & Threads celebrates creativity, dedication, and the power of storytelling through art, offering a glimpse into the evolving practice of a promising young artist whose works are woven with both colour and care.

Why Sublime?

Spurred by her desire to showcase the finest in lifestyle, visionary Ms. Uzma Irfan, Executive Director at the Prestige Group, and Founder of Sublime, UB City, Bangalore, masterminded Sublime House of Tea in 2013. Uzma has a degree in Business Administration from the American Intercontinental University, London, and has been at the forefront of several Prestige Group enterprises that have earned global acclaim and respect. Her keenness in promoting traditionally sound yet innovative ideas is apparent from the Sublime House of Tea. "The idea was to bring different kinds of world tea to an Indian consumer's tea cup", says Uzma. "Most Indian kitchens are now open to experimenting beyond the traditional masala chai! Our teas are curated from the finest produce in the country & crafted into unique blends that are both flavourful & healthy."
